LaSalle Solutions Awarded 2014 InfoTECH Spotlight Data Center Excellence Award

LAMP Recognized for Excellence

Rosemont, IL, January 29, 2015 — LaSalle Solutions announced today that TMC, a global, integrated media company, named LAMP as a 2014 Data Center Excellence Award winner, presented by infoTECH Spotlight.

LAMP, a proprietary cloud-based toolset, enables LaSalle customers to streamline, organize, and visually see the impact of their maintenance contracts, lease schedules and assets. Through LAMP, users better manage, report and plan for equipment operations, migration and upgrades. Customers can quickly manage equipment and contract changes, request audits and quotes, start RMAs and report on existing information to better plan for their current and future business needs.

"We are delighted to win the 2014 Data Center Excellence Award for Technology for LAMP," says Steven Robb, President – Solutions Group at LaSalle Solutions. "Organizations are faced with the huge challenge of improving efficiencies and effectiveness of the lifecycle management of technology assets. We strive to provide our customers with better information, process and tools to increase their ROI. We are proud to see LAMP recognized as such a tool."

"LaSalle Solutions has displayed its commitment to quality and innovation in the development of the data center industry," said Rich Tehrani, CEO, TMC. "I look forward to witnessing continued excellence from LaSalle Solutions and their efforts toward improving the future of the data center industry."

The 2014 Data Center Excellence Award recognizes the most innovative and enterprising data center vendors who offer infrastructure or software, servers or cooling systems, cabling or management applications.
